This report has been written by Welsh Government. Welsh Government is here to make Wales a great place to live, work, and go to school.

We want to know what you think about school uniform.

There is no law about school uniforms, but every school in Wales can decide whether or not pupils have to wear them.

School uniform is good for many reasons, but we always want schools to make sure people can afford school uniform and that it is fair for everyone. Think about the cost of uniforms, and equality of students.

Why we want to know what you think

It's important that all children and young people are treated fairly when it comes to school uniform.

This means we expect your school to follow the same guide as all the other schools in Wales.

What we think

- We think everyone should be able to afford school uniform.
- We think everyone should be able to find school uniform easily.
- We believe school uniform should be fair for all pupils.
- We think if it's too hot or too cold, pupils should be able to change their school uniform.

What we expect

- Schools will still be in charge of school uniform.
- Schools will make sure everyone can afford school uniform.
- Schools will make sure everyone can get school uniform.
- Schools will make sure school uniform is fair for all pupils.
- Pupils will be allowed to wear different uniform if it is very hot or very cold.

Looking after information about you. General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

The Welsh Government will be in control of any information you give us while getting involved with the consultation. Welsh Ministers will use their powers to decide how they take your information and use it to do their job.

Welsh Government staff will see how you respond to any of the questions in the consultation. If the Welsh Government looks at the consultation deeper it may ask other organisations to use the information, but if Welsh Government does this, we will make sure that these organisations keep your information safe.

To show that the consultation was run properly, the Welsh Government will write a report showing some of what people said.

Normally, the name and address (or part of the address) of the person who sent the response are shown with the response. If you do not want your name or address shown, please tell us this in writing when you send your response. We will then make sure your details are not included before it is published.

You should also know that people can ask for information from us (Freedom of Information legislation).

If your details are published as part of the consultation response, then these published reports will be kept for an unlimited amount of time.

Any of your data held otherwise by Welsh Government will be kept for no more than three years.
